"... RHYTHM OF SUCCESS ..."

NEW YORK, N. Y. JUNE 1965—There is a pulse to this city that pumps continuous life into its buildings, its bridges, its waterfronts.

This life is New York's people, moving forward with determination towards achievement. Thriving on the barest threads of hope, accepting staunchly the expected disappointments, they push on to the goals and dreams that may one day be attained. Fighting for a place in the city that can be theirs, New Yorkers are beating out a rhythm of success.

Here at Jackson we too struggle to achieve, grasping at knowledge and an understanding of life so that we might eventually become a productive part of our city. We will set the new tempo of New York. We are to be its new life.

Mr. Joseph Brennan was born in Brooklyn and raised in Queens. He graduated from Jamaica High School, Brooklyn College, and did post graduate work at Columbia University and New York University. He taught at Jamaica High School and was chairman of the Social Studies Department at Andrew Jackson, where he met and later married his present wife. He left Jackson to organize and become first principal of Sands Junior High School in Brooklyn. For two years before returning to Jackson as our principal, Mr. Brennan was assigned to the office of the Superintendent of Schools.

It is with great honor and pleasure, that the Pioneer staff, on behalf of the seniors of Andrew Jackson, welcomes Mr. Joseph Brennan back to Andrew Jackson High School.

FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

The years at Jackson are the most significant years of a Jacksonite's life. They are the years in which the building blocks of a Jacksonite's life are constructed and cemented in their place. The average Jacksonite will enter the age of maturity during his high school years; both mentally and physically.

Jackson has a top rate faculty and an excellent student body, a unique student body in the sense that it is perhaps one of the largest, best-integrated, middle class student bodies in the country. Scholarships and other honors are a material recognition of the excellence of Jackson's faculty and student body.

In store for future Jacksonites will be a continuing improvement in the academic courses, an experimentation with new teaching methods, a modernizing of the school, and an attempt to improve the public image of Jackson.

The Jacksonite is the materialization of the American dream—the greatest political heritage of the ages, the base of democracy—a free and integrated education. Jackson will teach its students and prepare them for coexistance with all ethnic groups. By the next Presidential election, most of the senior class will be able to vote.

High school time is fun time as well. There will be many a Jacksonite, class of '65, who will look back with fond memories upon his years at Andrew Jackson High.

ADMINISTRATION

A much admired woman, Miss Ann Braunstein entered Jackson as an English teacher. Now the Administrative Assistant in charge of the Guidance Department and Girls' Dean, she is responsible for the preparation of tentative programs for incoming students.

Mr. Kass has spent the last two of his sixteen years at Jackson as acting administrative assistant and Dean of Boys. His objective is maintaining a well coordinated school in which the welfare of both student and teacher is of major importance.

Mr. H. Christ, Chairman

ENGLISH

Mr. Henry I. Christ, chairman of our English Department feels that, "a school and a department are shaped by the community in which the school is located. The cultural importance of the city is evident in direct and subtle ways, from the use of cultural media in class, to the welcoming of guest lecturers in the advanced English classes."

The English curriculum is designed to prepare students for the demand of the city colleges and the competition of metropolitan life. The opportunities for enrichment in the English Department are many. Journalism, creative writing, public speaking, dramatics, and honor classes are provided to enable talented students to work to their fullest potential. An English course for foreign students was recently initiated, and an advanced English 8-12 course has been opened to seniors.

Under the supervision of the English Department are Jackson's award winning publications; the Star, the Jackson literary magazine; and the Hickory Log, Jackson's newspaper.

The department wishes to foster clear, concise expression and critical thinking. The resulting improvement in communication aids the student in relating to the world around him.

ENGLISH FACULTY SEATED—Miss O. Donatelli, Mrs. B. Hirsch, Miss M. Bell, Miss E. Flanagan STANDING—Mr. H. Christ, Mr. L. Marsh, Mr. J. Weil, Mr. J. Liebb.

English is given a new twist when Anne Krupnik instructs the class.

Mr. Milton Blatt (left) is a man admired by all. In addition to his regular duties as an English teacher, he is a college adviser, the track team coach, the Student Relations Council advisor, and the teacher of a special English scholarship class.

ENGLISH FACULTY SEATED—Miss M. Cosgrove, Mrs. F. Tomlinson, Miss M. Koehler, Mrs. A. Bernstein STANDING—Mr. F. Bopp, Mr. H. Christ, Mr. L. Rich, Mr. M. Blatt, Mr. J. Fitzpatrick, Mr. L. Raphael, Mr. E. Rosenbaum, Mr. S. Schwartz, Mr. P. Burton, Mr. E. Soshensky.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Mr. M. Jacobson, Chairman

Mr. M. Jacobson, chairman of the Foreign Language Department feels that, "Students now studying foreign languages are more fortunate than those who have studied foreign languages at any other time in the history of New York. At no other time have they had as many opportunities to employ these languages."

The department concentrates on teaching language as a means of communication, rather than as a "Textbook" subject. Thus, more emphasis is being placed on the audio-lingual method in the language courses offered; French, Latin, Spanish, German, Hebrew. To enhance this program Jackson uses a modern language lab that enables students to hear themselves or inhabitants of other countries. Many fine films are also shown to broaden the student's knowledge.

Jackson has a record number of students studying a fourth year of foreign language. Next September, for the first time, Jackson will offer a fifth year of language, as well as the special "conversation" classes enabling students to develop fluency.

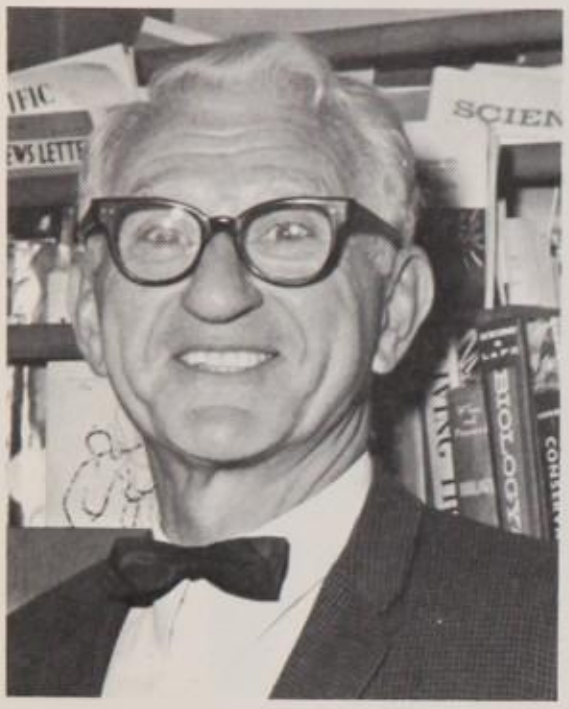
The department emphasizes that a foreign language is not just words. It is, however a means of communication by which feelings can be expressed.

Miss Rosenkrantz begins another stimulating lesson with a smile, and the taking of attendance.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT—SEATED—Mrs. A. Weinstein, Miss M. Gerber, Miss H. Finkel, STANDING—Mr. P. Siegel, Mr. M. Jacobson, Mr. S. Grotas.

Mr. S. La Rocca gives aid to a student in Jackson's modern language lab. The lab helps to stimulate the student's interest in developing skill and fluency in language.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCE



Mr. D. Sygoda, Chairman

Inhabitants of our great metropolis seldom see more than stone buildings and concrete streets. The city is overflowing with life, and the Biology Department teaches the study of life. Conservation is being encouraged as a major course of study, as plant and anmal life becomes more and more scarce in our city. The development of the ability to appreciate and understand life is an important part of the course.

In both the biology and general science branches of the department, the faculty attempts to cultivate a knowledge of scientific techniques in the student. For the ambitious and talented pupils, advanced college and laboratory courses are offered. In a special project room, pupils carry out personal research. A Biology Club, under the direction of Mr. Scott, is an added stimulus for the scientifically inclined.

Mr. Sygoda, head of the department, points out that this faculty does its best to develop in the student, a better understanding of life and the world they live in. This deeper insight is an essential aim of the department.

BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT FACULTY—SEATED—Mrs. V. Croll, Mrs. Thelma Marinoff, Miss B. Wittlinger, STANDING—Mr. D. Abramson, Mr. M. Berson, Mr. D. Sygoda, Mr. I. Kasner.

PHYSICAL SCIENCES

"New York is a wonderful place for young scientists," says Mr. Harry Goldman, chairman of the Physical Science Department. "It gives us innumerable opportunities to learn from primary sources. We have many museums, one of the country's most outstanding planetariums, and Central Park, one great geological specimen." This year, in conjunction with a new program designed to encourage the spirit of free inquiry, the students are being urged to take advantage of these facilities so that they might profit from their own thoughts and observations.

In addition to the chemistry, physics, and earth science classes, a new college-level course in chemistry is being offered. Under the supervision of the department are the Radio Club and the Spectrum, a student motivated science magazine.

The members of the Physical Science Department realize that the student benefits most from doing his own thinking. Thus they are always looking for new forms of stimulus.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Mr. J. Wolfson, Chairman

As the Social Studies Department strives to help Andrew Jackson's students understand the world they live in, it is also preparing them to assume responsible positions in community, national, and world affairs. Problems of the world today are not clear cut; nevertheless they must be recognized fully in order to be understood and solved.

The aim of the Social Studies Department is to help students understand the present by studying the past. It does this not only through required classroom study, but also through history electives and advanced classes such as the History 12 course which deals with "Problems of Democracy". Discussion groups, forums, and honor classes are representative of the progressive trend of the department. Many of the teachers have done extensive traveling and study work, enabling them to bring a new and vibrant course of study to the student. By vicariously appreciating their teacher's adventures, students can develop their thirst for knowledge.

Social Studies teachers have a great responsibility to the world of tomorrow as well as the world of today. Mr. Joseph Wolfson, chairman of the department, is, like the rest of the faculty, well able to shoulder this responsibility.

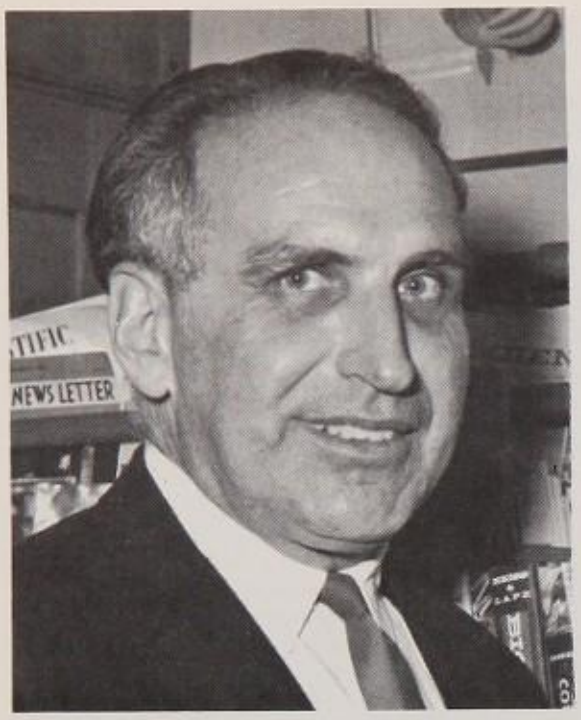
MATHEMATICS

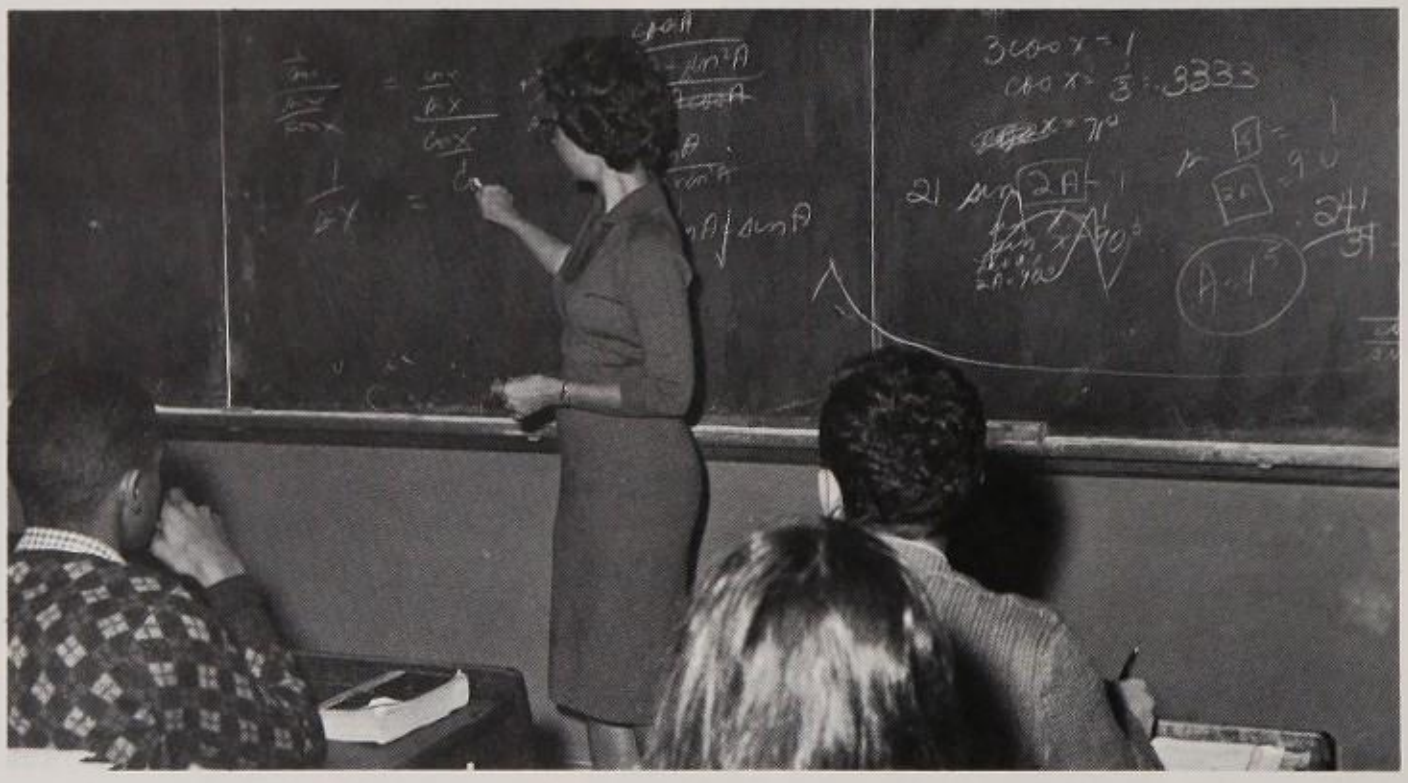


Mr. I. Newman, Chairman

Inherent to a large city such as New York is mathematics. From the architects, who design the buildings, to the businessmen who run them, mathematics is a necessary and useful tool. Andrew Jackson's curriculum in mathematics is designed to prepare the student for his chosen field.

Under the direction of Mr. I. Newman, the chairman of the math department, an excellent course of study is offered. Honor classes and advanced classes in solid geometry and advanced algebra have been initiated. Recently an advanced course in calculus has been introduced to further extend the Jackson students' depth in the world of mathematics. In coordination with this department, the math team was formed to demonstrate the skills of our students in the vast subject.

The math department was created to give students knowledge of the greatest branches of learning. It is a science which is basic to the advances being made in our civilization.



Miss Hellgoth instructs a class in Intermediate Algebra.

ART

Through the encouragement of the Art Department, the talent of promising art students is developed—talent that will be a credit to the beautification of our city—New York.

Mr. N. Engoren, Chairman of the department, points out that the members of the faculty are artists as well as teachers, employing their knowledge of art both in school and out of school. The faculty strives to instill in the student its knowledge and sense of perspective.

In addition to major art, the department offers electives in painting, crafts, and industrial design. The Industrial Arts Department conducts classes in manual crafts and transportation.

The Art Department is active in many related school functions. The Star's art staff and the stage crew are sponsored by members of the art faculty. The many decorative paintings and exhibits which can be seen throughout the hallways of Andrew Jackson are produced and displayed by the Art Department.

It is the purpose of the Art Department to give the student a deeper understanding of and interest in the arts. From this the student may derive more pleasure from the world around him.

EDUCATION

New York is, in many ways, a giant business complex. Studies in business education are essential to the maintenance of this complex. This department consists of accounting, merchandising, and secretarial studies departments and is headed by Mr. S. Seigel, Mr. M. Schulman, and Mr. J. Coe.

According to its chairmen, the purposes of the department are many and varied. The courses offered in both accounting and merchandising enable even those who will not enter the business world to function more effectively in the community. The courses are designed to aid students in obtaining occupations, after they graduate, as bookkeepers, business machine operators, certified public accountants or retailers. The Secretarial Studies Department prepares regular commercial students for positions as secretaries, stenographers, and office clerks. This department also offers a typing elective to Seniors taking an academic course.

The departments try to inspire the capable students, both commercial and academic, to continue their education at the college level, so that they might become teachers of these subjects. No matter what profession a student enters, he will undoubtedly find that the training he has received in secretarial practices will prove infinitely useful.

MUSIC

New York City offers a wonderful opportunity for performing and non-performing students to develop a love for much of the world's great music. Within easy reach of the student are many forms of musical entertainment.

Under the direction of its able chairman, Mrs. H. Gluck, the Music Department is representative of the many talents of Jackson students. Jackson students are offered a diverse program ranging from music appreciation to band and chorus. Many students have had the opportunity to view special programs in dance, opera, and solo recitals through the courtesy of Lincoln Center and other cultural groups. Eagerly awaited by Jacksonites are the Winter and Spring Musicales, which are performed entirely by the students of the department.

It is the goal of the Music Department to extend all possible opportunities for the students of Jackson to hear, appreciate, and understand great music.

LIBRARY

New York City is an educational center. As a focal point of learning, one of its major assets is its libraries. These libraries are ready to provide all people with vast amounts of knowledge.

Jackson's library has attempted to provide this same important service to its students. It works closely with the school's various programs, serving as a center to provide the necessary materials for additional study.

Our library is a source of reading and reference matter with appeal for each student. Books about foreign languages, the sciences, English or history are available for research or pleasure. A special Senior section provides more difficult literature for the more mature student.

With the ever-growing stress on education in our society, our library plays a significant role in our future. Jackson's library has advanced to meet the challenge.

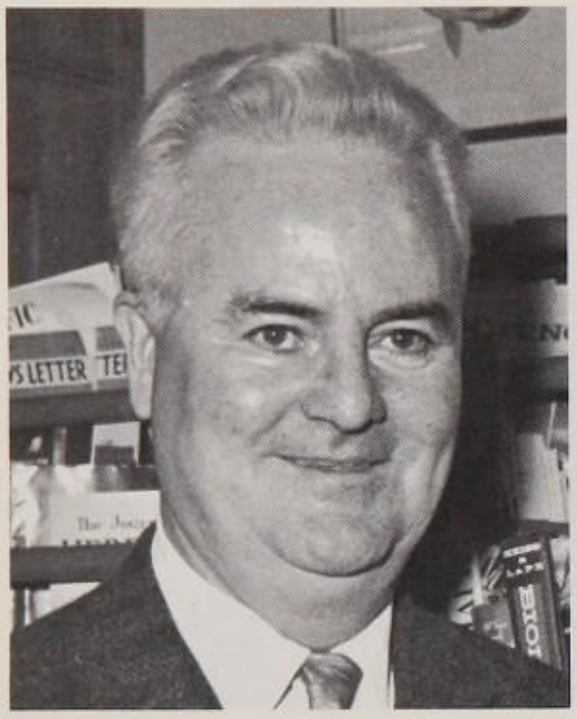
BOYS' HEALTH EDUCATION



Mr. A. Brennan, Chairman

"Andrew Jackson is one of the finest equipped high schools in Queens," boasts Mr. A. Brennan, who is chairman of the Boys' Health Education Department.

The department encourages fitness of mind and body through gym and hygiene curriculum. Intramural competition serves as a stimulus and teaches sportsmanship to the boys while acting as a proving ground for the teams sponsored by the department. These are the basketball, golf, bowling, tennis, swimming, and handball teams which are continually aspiring to new and greater heights each season.

Intramural competition is an important part of the Boys' Health Education curriculum.

GIRLS' HEALTH EDUCATION

Under the leadership of Mrs. M. Gray, the Girls' Health Education Department has developed a program which improves the grace and poise of Jackson's girls. Calisthenics, dancing, swimming and other sports help to make our girls healthy and attractive. In hygiene, the girls are taught the basics of first aid, driver education, and the key of healthful living and safety.

Following true Jackson tradition, our girls have excelled in sports. Their activities in the Leader's Club, Bowling and Tennis Clubs, and Modern Dance Club have made this possible.

When PIONEER '65 first went to press, in early September, we were just a group of seniors out to have fun. As the term progressed, however the work mounted and we faced many crises. We worried from deadline to deadline but we met them all. Yet even though there was a great deal of worry in our minds we were having the time of our lives. We gained knowledge and experience; we met many people and we went to many places. Often we felt our hearts break when something went wrong, but even more often we felt nothing but joy when things went right.

Each day we were faced with many questions: Would the pictures arrive before the publisher left? (They did) Would the flashbulbs fail just when we had a perfect pose? (They did) Would we get a color endsheet? (We did) Would we sell enough books? (We did) Would our classmates like PIONEER '65?

Now—farewell and thanks to all who helped us by keeping appointments, be being patient when Pioneers were pests. Most fortunate were we in our friends "in deed" To them, honorary Pioneers of 1965, we are grateful: Mrs. Malchiodi, living space; Mr. Heckman, meeting room; Miss Sheridan, use of the library; Mrs. Tranes, typing; Mrs. Beneson, proof reading; Brad Stark, mimeographing; Richard Workman, Editor, PIONEER '64, useful advice; Miss Flynn and Lynn Schneider, tolerance.

SENIORS VICTORIOUS

Miss Rosemarie Hellgoth—Senior Sing Advisor.

"Seniors are spinning, our show's beginning." sang the members of Senior Sing as they opened their way to victory with their theme of "Inventions". When the victory announcement came in, the stage became a bedlam. Cheering, laughing, screaming with happiness, crying with joy, the seniors revelled in the moment for which they had worked so hard and earned so well.

The juniors with their theme of "Devils" and the sophomores with their theme of "School Days" put up a gallant fight, but in the end, the seniors, with their greater experience and ability brought glory to the green and white, the senior colors.

The seniors were spinning, and winning, and living through an experience that will always be one of their most beautiful memories.

ARISTA

Arista, the honor society of the New York City high schools was established in 1904 by the Board of Education. In Jackson, its membership represents the top four per cent of the total student body, chosen from members of the junior and senior classes. Members are required to achieve and maintain an excellent scholastic record and have a satisfactory service record. This year, Arista, under the direction of Mr. LaRocca, participated in a cultural program which included attendance at Broadway plays and movies. Arista also continued its tutorial program, its members helping other students.

What Is a Jacksonite?

The fascinating many-faceted personality known as a Jacksonite is a combination of the naive freshman, the volatile sophomore, the earnest junior and the hopeful senior. Jacksonites come in assorted sizes: short ones sneaking ahead on lunch lines or trying to win basketball games, fat ones grunting over gym exercises, thin ones griping about cafeteria food, shapely ones leading cheers—and all sizes being melodious in Sing.

Mothers love them, teachers tolerate them, deans discipline them, eighth-graders worship them and the 105th Precinct protects them.

Two loves has every Jacksonite—vacations and high marks. Two aversions has every Jacksonite—homework and examinations.

A Jacksonite can be more mixed-up than anyone else—getting on the wrong school bus, forgetting his locker combination, losing his S.S. stub, missing a final examination.

The personification of many things, a Jacksonite is Victory on the track team, Class Spirit in Sing, Drama in the fall play, Politics campaigning for G.O. officers, Pride listening to "Jackson on Parade," Erudition winning a scholarship and Citizenship winning an award; his is Journalism on Hickory Log, Creative Writing on Star, Science and Mathematics on Spectrum and School Spirit on Pioneer; he is Rebellion against injustice, Cooperation in an emergency and Fascination in a senior hat.

A Jacksonite may gripe and complain for four years, but as he takes a last look at his alma mater he knows he will always remember with nostalgia the triumphant moments of his school days.

SPORTS

TRACK TEAM

Ranking high in popularity at Andrew Jackson High School is our winning track team. With the aid and enthusiasm of the team's coach, Mr. M. Blatt, the team has worked ambitiously to obtain and maintain a winning record. Their teamwork has resulted in a proud collection of trophies and medals. These well-trained boys, who are better known as the Hickories, have won four out of six major indoor competitions and have won further acclaim by coming in second in the other two events.

This indoor season began with the appointment of four new captains: Fred Wilson, John Bivins, Reggie Williams, and Mike Frances. The new captains will attempt to bring the team to a greater strength as practice continues. With the change of seasons, the team has moved its practice area to the school's second floor. There, after eleventh period, Jackson's halls become alive with the sounds of track practice.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Andrew Jackson's prize sports team is the Harriers, the cross-country team which has won honors many times and is now once again this year's city champions.

The cross-country run itself is an extremely difficult and tiring trek over two and one half miles of woods and hills. To obtain the stamina and speed necessary to run this rugged course, Mr. Blatt, the proud coach of all track events, can be seen rigorously working the boys everyday from 2:30—5:00 on the Jackson track.

Recently in a meet dominated completely by Jackson's well-trained runners, the Harriers took the Queens championship in the best collective effort ever made by a N.H.E. public school. Mr. Blatt's work and the work of the team's co-captains, Cliff De Pass and Steve Johnson, and the fine performance of the team in such an event as this, have brought this team to a position of glory in Jackson.

BASEBALL TEAM

THIRD ROW—Bill Doherty, Lenny Abramowitz, John Tambarino, Jeff Sherman, William Boines.

Andrew Jackson High School's baseball team, under the capable tutelage of Mr. Gambardella of the Boys' Health Ed. Department, is a well-known institution at our school. It is one of the more popular activities at Jackson and one which has proved to be extremely promising. The team unfortunately lost many of its best players last year in the graduating class of '64, and began this new year with only seven carry-overs. The novice players, however, have proved to be good prospects for the coming season. With this in mind, we can be assured of continued success in baseball competitions.

SWIMMING TEAM

THIRD ROW—Phillip Frazier, Mario Johnson, Barry Feldman—Co-Captain, Richie Devine, Leonard Ross, Ed Betts, Charles Johnson, Paul McGregor—Captain.

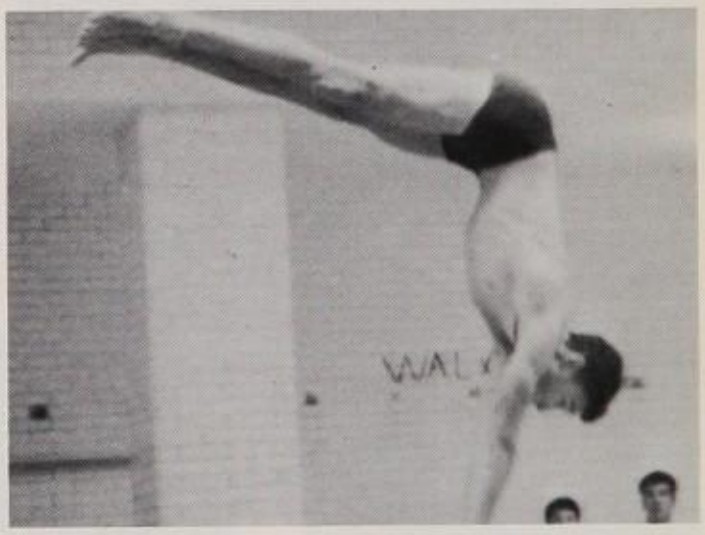
The return of many excellent and experienced team members made this not only a skillful and speedy team, but also a well-known and popular one. Paul McGregor, the team's captain and ace back stroker, and Barry Feldman, co-captain and Jackson's most versatile swimmer, worked harmoniously with coach Harry Smith to spur the team on, even when they were not as successful as they had hoped.

Four was the lucky number for the boys this year. The team placed fourth in High School Competition, in the P.S.A.L. championships and in the Queens League. Junior Charles Johnson placed fourth in the P.S.A.L. Team. Old Hickory also had four swimmers named to the All Queens Swimming Team. They were Captain Paul McGregor, Co-Captain Barry Feldman, Richard Devine and Leonard Ross; they participated in the 100 yard backstroke, 200 yard freestyle relay, 400 yard freestyle and the Dive respectively.

Richie Devine and Mario Johnson were the distant swimmers. Lenny Ross was our number one diver. Charlie Johnson was in the number two spot and also swam the 100 yard butterfly with Charlie Carlino.

Maurice Stevens, a veteran breaststroker, and Elliot Gordon, veteran freestylers were back this year.

Now that our senior year has ended, we sadly but confidently leave the task of future victories to the nucleus of able juniors we leave behind.



BASKETBALL TEAM

The basketball team, coached by Mr. Matican, creates much excitement among our students. It is a major activity, and of interest to all Jacksonites. Our team, however, faces many difficulties. The major problem of the team is the elegibility of basketball-minded students. Each team member must maintain a good scholastic record.

The outstanding senior palyers were Larry Singletary, Louis Jones, and Jack Siegel. Right now, they are investigating various scholarship awards available to them.

Although our team had a slow start, our boys closed the season by defeating Van Buren High School for their first League victory. Next season we should have an even better showing, because of the promising performances of the undergraduate players.

TENNIS TEAM

HANDBALL TEAM

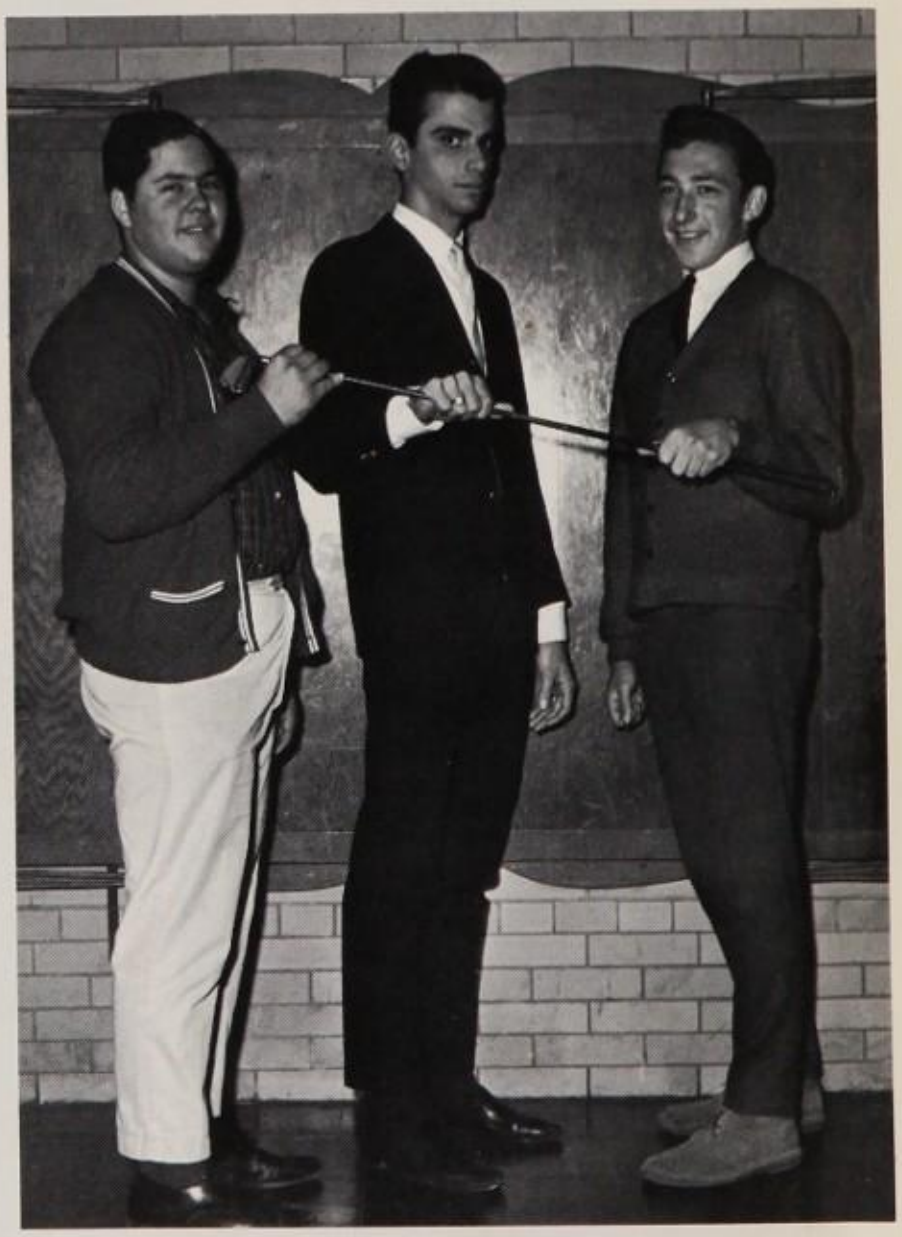
Jackson's handball team, under the direction of Mr. O. P. Davis, started the new season this spring. The only player returning from last year is Sam Dodson. The team participates in intermural competition. Although the team was not up to par last year, it has hopes for a very successful season.

GOLF TEAM



Lewis Hale, Harold Palmicons, Frank Laznovsky.

One of the many and varied sports activities offered by the Boys' Health Ed. Department of Andrew Jackson is golf. Our school has long been proud of its golf team which is supervised by Mr. Gottman. This team plays in interschool competitions on such public golf courses as the Kissena Golf Course in Flushing. Its record is outstanding and continues to improve.

BOWLING TEAM

FIRST ROW—Sam Dodson, David Scherr, Frank Salata, Roy Dawson, William Greenspan. SECOND ROW—Michael Visconti, James Coffenberg, Philip Findlay, Lawrence DeVito, Thomas McCalmont, Jerry Seltzer.
